

VOTING ENTITLEMENTS

Eligible financial members of Tourism Atherton Tablelands (TAT) are invited to vote at our Annual General Meeting (AGM). Membership voting rights are in accordance with the Constitution (section 7) and outlined below:

Principle Member

- Entitled to receive notice of meeting of the Company, to attend and participate at these but not vote at the meeting of the company; and
- Nominate up to two Board Observers in accordance with clause 16 of the Constitution

Platinum Member

- Entitled to receive notice of meeting of the Company, to attend and participate at these and to have four (4) votes at the meeting of the company

Gold Member

- Entitled to receive notice of meeting of the Company, to attend and participate at these and to have three (3) votes at the meeting of the company

Silver Member

- Entitled to receive notice of meeting of the Company, to attend and participate at these and to have two (2) votes at the meeting of the company

Bronze Member

- Entitled to receive notice of meeting of the Company, to attend and participate at these and to have one (1) votes at the meeting of the company

Supporter of Tourism

- Entitled to attend the meeting of the Company as an Observer but not counted for the purposes of requisitioning a meeting of the Company or a quorum at the meeting of the Company and not right to participate in or vote at the meeting.